

Let The Customers Come To You... Thousands In Just 3 Days! Expanded Show For 2012!

Now 2 Arenas Plus The Auditorium One of Ontario's Longest Running, Successful Home Shows!

Jenkins Show Productions is proud to announce that this year's expanded 40th annual Home Show will once again be held in north Burlington! The Mainway Recreation Centre is the permanent base for both the spring and fall Home Shows. It is centrally located in the middle of north Burlington on Walkers Line and it has lots of free parking. This year's show encompasses two arenas plus an auditorium side by side. Combined with new entertainment and a how-to stage, it all boils down to higher attendance and more potential customers for you.

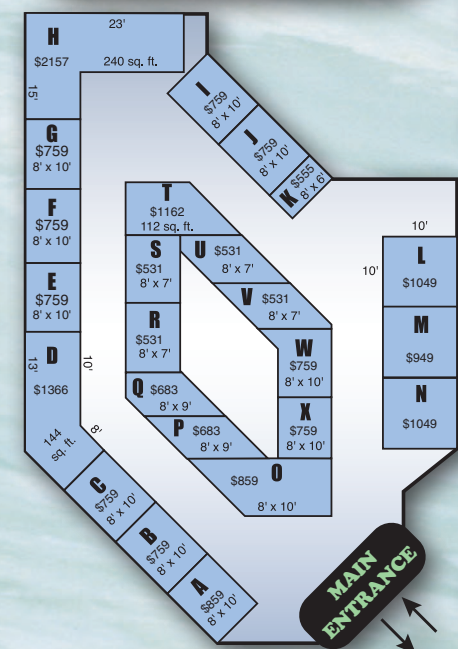

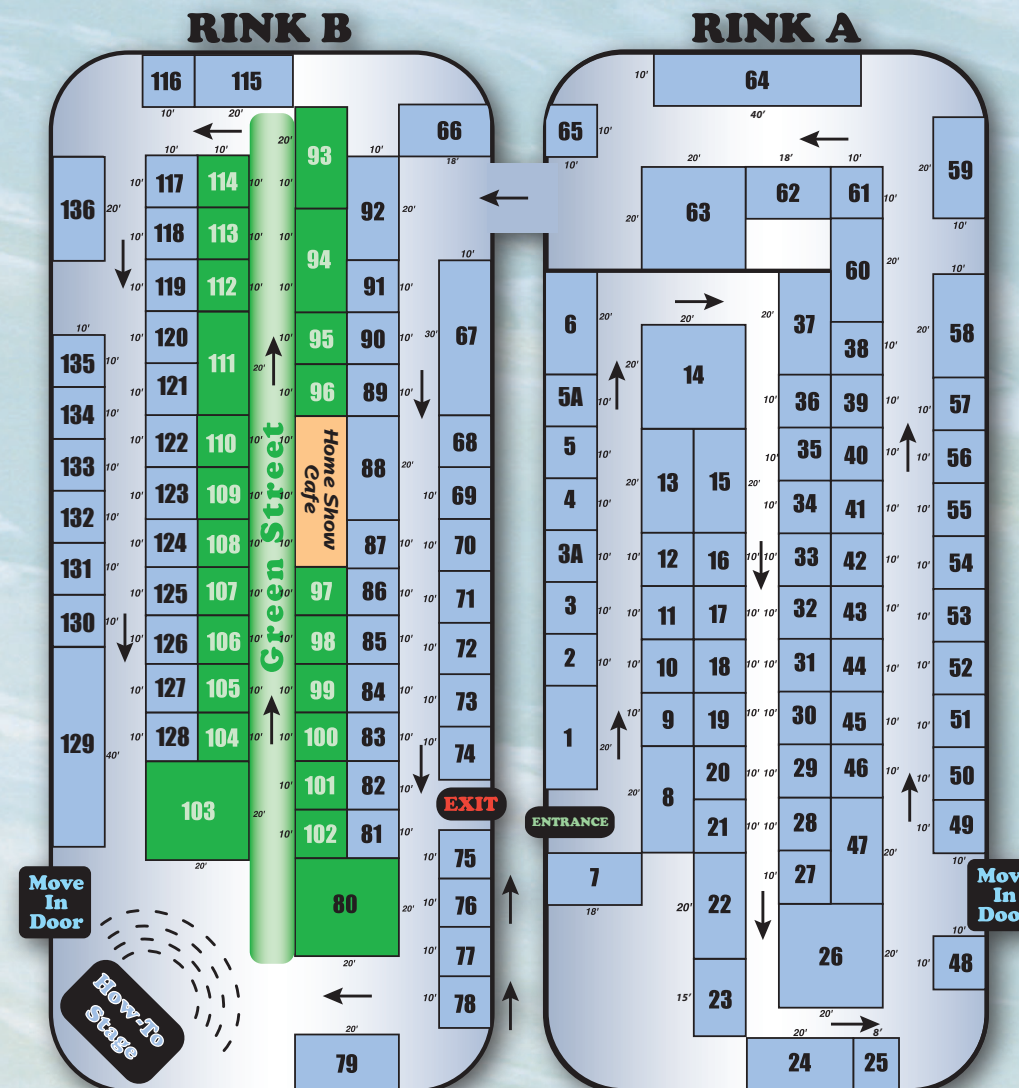

Exhibiting in a community Home Show – such as the Burlington Lifestyle Home Show is the best way to reach a targeted audience of thousands of local homeowners in a very concentrated period of time. Consumers come to the Home Show because of the convenience and to save time. They can see all the top local companies in one place, at one time and make an educated buying decision. Unlike other forms of promotion, a show can stimulate all five senses. Consumers can get immediate feedback by talking to one of your company representatives. They can obtain prices and buy on the spot or they can book an appointment. Ninety-one percent of business leaders rank expositions as the #1 source for product and purchasing information.

The Home Show is promoted by a major media advertising blitz that includes local newspapers, direct to home delivery, mobile signs, posters, free passes and a public relations campaign. Avoid the waiting list. Reserve your booth space today!
