Dear Friends:

On behalf of members of Council and the residents of the city of Mississauga, I am pleased to extend greetings to the organizers, exhibitors and guests of the Mississauga Lifestyle Home Show.

It is commonly said that, "Home is where the heart is". Residents across this great city take enormous pride in their homes and during the Mississauga Lifestyle Home Show, residents will have the opportunity to see all of the new and exciting products and services that are available for their home.

As Canada's sixth largest city, Mississauga is home to more than 700,000 residents. It pleases me to see the Hershey Centre and Jenkins Show Productions host this useful and informative show for our residents.

Once again, on behalf of my colleagues and Council and the residents of the city of Mississauga, best wishes for a successful event.

Sincerely,
